

RUNE GUNERIUSSEN

Photographies

Melanie Rio Fluency invite le photographe norvégien Rune Guneriusssen à présenter une sélection de photographies. Déjà présenté lors d'expositions personnelles à la galerie à Nantes et à Paris en 2010, 2014 et 2018, le travail de Rune Guneriusssen s'articule autour de deux pratiques: l'installation et la photographie à la chambre grand format. La plupart de ses interventions, réalisées sur des sites naturels isolés, ne sont visibles qu'à travers ses photographies, seuls vestiges ou témoignages de ce qui a existé. À la recherche de lieux singuliers, Rune Guneriusssen intervient sur le paysage dans une pratique proche du Land Art, en maniant des objets usagés ou désuets : lampes, chaises ou livres qu'il met en scène et dispose selon un agencement précis dans des espaces naturels.

Rune Guneriusssen est né en 1977 en Norvège. Il a étudié au Surrey Institute of Art and Design, au Royaume-Uni. Aujourd'hui, il vit et travaille dans l'est de la Norvège.

Melanie Rio Fluency invites photographer Rune Guneriusssen to present a selection of works. Already shown at the gallery in Nantes and Paris for several solo shows in 2010, 2014 and 2018 Rune Guneriusssen's work focuses on two practices: installation and photography using a large-format view camera. Most of his interventions, performed on isolated natural sites as Land Art's practices, are visible only through his photographs: the only vestiges or evidences of what existed. In quest of unusual places, his interventions deal with everyday objects: lamps, furniture or books that he showcases and features in natural spaces in a precise arrangement.

Rune Guneriusssen was born in 1977 in Norway. He studied at the Surrey Institute of Art & Design in the UK. Today he lives and works in the east of Norway.
